Teaching in the Savior's Way Manual

For All Who Teach in the Home and in the Church

During this year's BYU Education Week, Sunday School General President Mark L. Pace presented an overview of the NEW revised version of "Teaching in the Savior's Way," announced by Elder Dieter F. Uchtdorf of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles during a worldwide broadcast in June.

President Pace said the Sunday School general presidency's focus, as suggested by President Russell M. Nelson, is to encourage scripture study with "Come, Follow Me" and improve gospel teaching at home and at church. The new manual more closely corresponds with the 2-hour church block schedule and for more gospel teaching at home.

"Teaching in the Savior's Way" includes practical helps and suggestions for a variety of teaching settings, including church, home and family; teaching children, youth, adults or people with disabilities; and virtual teaching.

There are (3) parts to the new manual:

- Part 1 Emphasizes the importance of focusing on Jesus Christ whenever we teach the principles of His gospel. This section describes what we teach.
- Part 2 Emphasizes the principles of Christlike teaching. This section describes how we teach.
- Part 3 Gives practical suggestions to help teachers apply the principles of Christlike teaching.

For those who may be struggling with teaching at home, President Pace offered these encouraging words: "The miracle is found in the consistent effort. ... 'Be not weary in well doing for ye are laying the foundation of a great work'" (Doctrine and Covenants 64:33).

The new manual is available now at: www.churchofjesuschrist.org and the Gospel Library app. Print copies are forthcoming and will be available at the end of the year.
